Faculty

An intelligent and capable administrator, Principal Clifford C. French has guided the 1961 graduates through four tedious years of high school. His ever-present aid and cooperation will never be forgotten by the classes of today.

Administrators Advise the Faculty

Marion Clawson, Union Township Trustee, is the chief administrative officer of the township school. He is kept busy employing teachers, providing suitable working facilities, transportation and other articles for the smooth operation of the school.

Advisory Board Sets Policies

Norma Cornelius is counting out money, one of her daily tasks.

Miss Sybil Lytel, truant officer, arriving for one of her weekly visits.

PERRY L. BIXLER: Mr. Bixler teaches history classes and is the eighth grade class sponsor. He has also sponsored the F. T. A. this year.

JOSEPH J. BROWNING: Mr. Browning has taught classes in biology, typing, history and arithmetic this year, which have occupied his time completely.

Promoting Education

Adv

JOHN R. CARTER: Mr. Carter, a new teacher this year, has successfully taught six English classes during the year.

ESTA P. COCHRAN: Miss Cochran teaches all the advanced high school mathematics courses. She has also been the co-sponsor of the senior class this year.

JACK F. HENDERSON: Mr. Henderson teaches grade music in addition to his band and chorus work. He sponsors the newly-formed dance band, also.

DOROTHY D. HENSLEY: Mrs. Hensley, the busy cafeteria supervisor, also teaches home economics. In addition, she sponsors the F. H. A.

STANLEY D. LANDFAIR: Mr. Landfair, a business education major, fills his daily schedule with various classes in this field.

BARBARA S. MORGAN: Mrs. Morgan is the head librarian, advisor of the yearbook, and freshman class sponsor in addition to teaching several English classes.

ing School Activities

DON R. MORRIS: Mr. Morris, senior class sponsor, teaches art and drafting, and he has been the junior high basketball coach this year.

JOHN E. NICHOLS: Mr. Nichols is the varsity basketball coach and teaches driver training, health and safety, and physical education.

FRANK E. PARKER: Mr. Parker, in his first year at Eaton, has taught several classes in both science and arithmetic.

CARL W. RARICK: Mr. Rarick comes to Eaton every two years to teach Bible, which is considered an English course.

DELORES K. ROBBINS: Miss Robbins teaches physical education and English. She sponsors G. A. A. and has charge of the cheerblock and cheerleaders.

JAMES L. SCHWARZKOPF: Mr. Schwarzkopf teaches all agriculture classes and sponsors the F. F. A. He has also been the sophomore class sponsor.

BARBARA E. SLUSHER: Mrs. Slusher teaches Latin, shorthand, and English. She also works in the office and advises the Lens staff.

JOHN R. SLUSHER: Mr. Slusher teaches business education, arithmetic, and physical education. He is the second team coach and the junior sponsor.

The most popular people at noon are those on the kitchen staff. They are from left to right, Ruth Tuttle, Wilma Carder, and Veda Morris.

Our Helping Hands

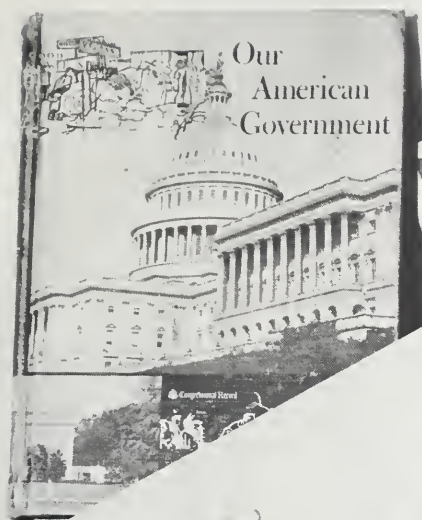

Well known to all Eaton High School students are the custodians. They are Charlie Holdren, Mary Bell and Jim Harshman.

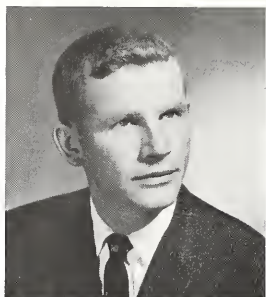

The bus drivers must have nerves of steel. They show up rain or shine at our door. They also transport us to many extra activities.
(ROW 1): Sam Peck, Herb Snider, Lester Barber.
(ROW 2): Jackson Wright, Chester Jones, Henry Hahn, and Charles Smith.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

In Re: Probate of the Will of The Senior Class of '61 LATE OF Eaton High School

GRADUATED AND

Grant of Letters of Administration, cum testamento annexo.

Registers Office

Delaware County

BEFORE THE REGISTER OF EATON HIGH SCHOOL PERSONALLY APPEARED Clifford C. French, Supervising Principal of Eaton High School, WHO BEING DULY SWORN SAY THAT THE Senior Class of '61 BEING AT THE TIME RESIDENTS OF Eaton, DELAWARE COUNTY AND CITIZENS OF Indiana GRADUATED AT Eaton High School ON May 10th HAVING FIRST MADE their LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT DATED October 26, A.D. 1960,

That the testator was possessed of personal estate to the value of $4,000.00. I do further swear that, as the Administrator cum testamento annexo of the estate of the said graduating Class, will, well and truly administer the goods and chattels, rights and credits of said Class, and will also diligently and faithfully regard and truly comply with the provisions of the law as related.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Dave Benadum wills his ability to go to the Prom on a blind date to Bill Elliott.

Barbara Black wills her quietness to her sister, Sherry, for she knows she will need it in the years to come.

Gloria Blair wills her ability to be so friendly that she nearly wrecks the car waving to people every time she drives, to anyone who wants exciting moments everyday.

Kay Brinkley wills her ability to be the only girl cornet player in the band for four years to Julie Smoot.

Nancy Burres wills Mr. Nichols to the girls who want to go with next years ball players.

Dale Campbell wills his ability to go from a '49 Ford to a '57 Ford to anyone that can make the payments.

Roberta Carder wills her naturally curly hair to anyone who hates nightly pin-ups.

Christi Duke wills her quiet ways to Mary Ward.

Sue Dunlap wills her quiet ways to anyone who is inclined to be noisy.

Charles Elitzroth wills his ability to stay out of trouble to Fred Futrell.

Jim Fuller wills his ability to operate the motion picture and sound equipment to Jim Hendricks.

Emily Gibson wills her ability to take art in her senior year to any junior who can draw.

Alice Gillis wills her courage to take seven subjects in the junior year to anyone who has the ambition.

Joann Gregory wills her first period office job to anyone who likes to run around in the halls.

Jim Gruwell wills Mr. French to the juniors.

Dick Haggard wills Health and Safety class to anyone who likes to goof-off.

Sherry Hess wills her 12 colors of angora and the different ways of fixing her ring to all the girl friends of Steve Smoot.

Philena Jones Holeman wishes to will to anyone who has dropped out of school her good luck to return and graduate.

Fred Hollowell wills his naturally black hair to anyone who is inclined to dye.

Judy Hutchins wills her ability to do well in her senior year to Cynthia Gray.

Caroline Jury wills 15 extra minutes to the physics students for use in the lab experiments.

Paul Kitchen wills all his extra credits to his brother, who needs them.

Bonnie Lynn Loughmiller wishes to will her seat in the Assembly to Chuck Augburn and also an ink pen and plenty of paper for Civics.

Vivian Love wills her front seat to anyone who can take the draft from the door.

Richard Morris wills his ability to stand in front of Mr. Slusher's assembly practically every day to anyone who doesn't like to sit through the first period.

Mike Murray wills his ability to take Vocational Agriculture 11 & 12 the last period to any junior who wishes to take agriculture and trigonometry.

Elaine Poe wills her job in the office to Marianne Morris, since she has a lot of energy.

Randy Presser wills his strength to Mr. Nichols.

Sherri Riegel wills having her hair different colors to anyone who can afford it.

Christine Roberts wills her ability to draw and paint to Rolando Sanchez because it sometimes gives an excuse to get out of school and he'd like that.

Bill Robertson wills his height to Alan (Pee-Wee) Wiles.

Jim Roysden wills his ability to get transferred to another school to all the students at Royerton, so they won't have to put up with the teachers and coaches.

Carl Schooley wills his slimness to Dave Norrick.

Gary Shonk wills his ability to stay out of trouble to Don Morris.

Karen Sipe wills all the work of being a senior to anyone who has the time to do it.

Carolyn Smith wills her civics book to anyone who thinks he can manage it.

Gary Smith wills his long list of "brownie points" to Eddie and Dale.

John Smith wills his seat to anyone who is inclined to carving.

Sandra Springer wills the ability and the patience to alphabetize library cards to the future librarians.

Ted Studebaker wills his will to someone who can think of something to will.

Gene Swingley wills Miss Cochran and trigonometry class to next year's seniors.

Fred Whited wills to Mick Prewett his ability to throw a baseball from outfield to home plate.

Ruth Ann Whittig wills a good nickel ball point for civics and the hard work of being on the LENS staff to any junior.

Mary Sue Witt wills a lot of courage to the junior class.

Jerry Witter wills his whiskers to anyone who wants them.

THESE GRADUATES ARE RESIDENTS OF INDIANA RESIDING AT Eaton CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES, and RESPECTFULLY PETITION THE REGISTERER TO ADMIT SAID WILL TO PROBATE AND GRANT LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION CUM TESTAMENTO ANEXO ON SAID ESTATE.

Dear Diary,

January 1, 1975

After attending the annual class reunion of Eaton's graduating class of 1960, I am amazed at how many of the class members have carried out the plans they made as seniors. Whoever would have thought that so many things would result from the Junior Fall Festival?

So many of the class members have become teachers that the reunion seemed like one of our FTA meetings from high school days. Emily Gibson and Sue Dunlap are teaching at the fabulous new ultramodern school just outside of Muncie, which was built by the Etonian Corporation. Many of the children of our class members attend this school. Gloria Blair is the physical education teacher, Alice Gillis, the math teacher, and both Sherry Hess and Elaine Poe teach English. Several others are teaching in various locations throughout the state. Ruth Ann Whittig teaches speech and hearing therapy in Indianapolis, Caroline Jury teaches elementary children at Eaton, and Ted Studebaker is head coach at Muncie Central. Bill Robertson has become a college professor in the fields of math and science.

Several members of the class have formed a growing industrial organization, the Etonian Corporation. They have elected Jim Fuller as their president. Richard Morris is the industrial engineer and Paul Kitchen does the drafting. Construction operations are organized by John Smith, and Randy Presser operates the heavy equipment needed in their work. Joann Gregory, Sandra Springer, and Judy Hutchins are efficient secretaries in the chic office which Roberta Carder designed. The company's electronic engineers are Mike Murray, Gene Swingley, and Charles Eltzroth. Dave Benadum, now a lawyer, manages the technical points of the corporation. Carl Schooley is responsible for the painting.

We were fortunate that Fred Whited, Jerry Witter, and Jim Roysden were able to get furloughs from the armed forces in time to attend the reunion. Fred Hollowell was not able to attend due to his assignment in India. He is currently working in this country showing its exploding population better ways to produce food. Another member of the class, Kay Brinkley, is also a world traveler. She has carried out her ambition to be an interpreter for the United States ambassador to the United Nations.

Several students have followed cultural pursuits. Christi Duke is now organizing a tour of the country as a concert pianist. Bonnie Loughmiller is employed in a newspaper office and in addition writes numerous articles for women's magazines. Carolyn Smith designs women's fashions and works as a fashion co-ordinator for VOGUE magazine. Sherri Riegel teaches in a finishing school and models for several leading magazines.

Most of the class members have married now. Several of the girls devote all of their time to making happy and successful homes for their families. Philena Holeman, Karen Sipe, Vivian Love, and Chris Roberts are active workers in worthwhile civil projects.

Other members of the class are engaged in varied lines of work. Dick Haggard is a public accountant and Roger Williams a National Park Ranger in Yellowstone National Park. Barbara Black is employed by the government as a police woman. Gary & Gary, the sensational new television comedy team is none other than Gary Smith and Gary Shonk. Jim Gruwell is a television repairman. Nancy Burren is a psychologist in the Freudian Memorial Clinic. Dick Williams is a mechanic in an Eaton service station. Tom Hart is employed as a salesman for a food company. Mary Witt is a friendly receptionist in a telephone company.

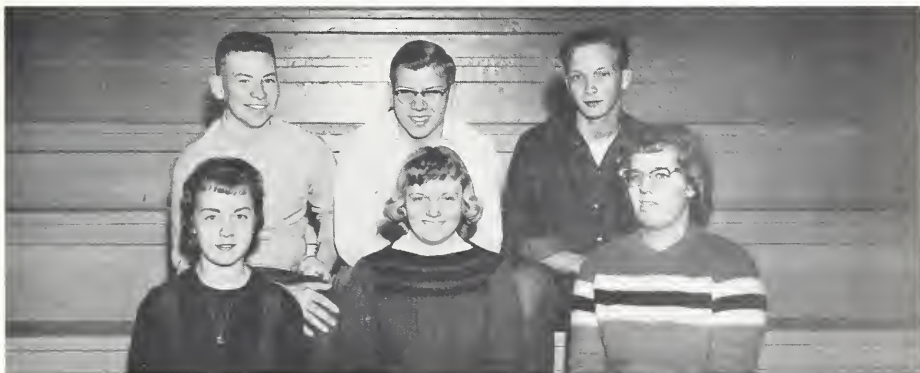

Dale Campbell is the first member of the class to retire. I think I will too...

Hard Work, Endurance Displayed by Seniors

These seniors have worked hard throughout the year in our selling campaigns and we are very proud of them. Thanks, kids, for a job well done. They are from left to right: Bonnie Loughmiller, Nancy Burres and Sherry Hess. ROW 2: Gene Swingley, Jim Fuller and John Smith.

CLASS HISTORY

The graduating class of 1961 excitedly entered Eaton School as first graders in the fall of 1949. The class was divided into two rooms, taught by Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Reynolds. This was the beginning.

Progressing to the second grade, the class learned to write under the able direction of Mrs. Brammer and Mrs. Ditzenberger.

As third graders, Mrs. Gladys Wilson and Mrs. Fredericks kept us busy learning the multiplication tables.

Advancing to the fourth grade, the members of this class were given their first lessons in social studies by Mrs. Opal Wilson and again, Mrs. Fredericks.

The fifth grade teachers, Mrs. Dutro and Mrs. Osenbaugh, continued to drill us in the three R's along with music and physical education.

Upon entering the sixth grade, we were honored to have the first sixth grade basketball team, coached by Mr. Dutro. The other sixth grade teacher was Mrs. Shook.

Thrilled at the prospect of entering junior high, the class chose Ted Studebaker, Fred Hollowell, Jerry Witter, and Fred Whited to head the seventh grade class. As sponsors, we selected Mrs. Heeter and Mr. Bixler. Seventh grade cheerleaders were Janet Duff and Elaine Poe.

Accustomed to the assembly, we began the eighth grade by electing Joann Gregory, John Smith, and Kay Brinkley as our officers. Cheering for our basketball team, which was runner-up in the eighth grade tourney, were Janet Duff and Kay Brinkley. The boys on the basketball team also took a trip to Hamilton, Indiana for a week end, where they were opposed by the Hamilton eighth grade basketball team. A tradition was established this year when we took the first overnight trip to Wyandotte Cave and toured Southern Indiana as a part of our history course. Our sponsor was Mrs. Grond, but Mr. Bixler planned the trip.

Hopefully becoming freshman, the class was at last in high school. Ted Studebaker, John Smith, Kay Brinkley, Karen Sipe, and Fred Whited were elected to lead the class with the assistance of Mrs. Altermatt, our sponsor. The basketball team was cheered by Gloria Blair, Janet Duff, Kay Brinkley, and Phil Jones Holeman.

As sophomores, excitement was aroused when the long awaited class rings were ordered. The officers, Bob Masters, John Smith, Kay Brinkley, Elaine Poe, and Fred Whited and our sponsor, Mr. Huffman, worked hard to make this year a success. Our first real money-making project was started when we ordered a large supply of lightbulbs. Quite a number of sophomore boys were members of the baseball, basketball, and track teams who won the county competition in 1959.

Becoming juniors was a big task. To help direct the activities were officers Ted Studebaker, Dave Benadum, Kay Brinkley, Elaine Poe, and Roberta Carder; and sponsor, Mr. Morris. The class play, "The Little Dog Laughed", directed by Mr. Marlot Williams, was presented on April 20, after many long hours of preparation and rehearsals. The prom given for the seniors was entitled "Oriental Paradise" and was held at the Moose Lodge in Hartford City. As a prelude to our senior year, we began selling concessions while the seniors were on their trip.

Our most memorable year began in September, 1960. We started the year off with a bang by having a work day, which consisted of washing school buses, trucks, and cars, along with other odd jobs around the house. Magazines were sold to add to our treasury. A turkey raffle, cake walk, and concessions were projects at the Fall Festival. A part of this activity packed year was the ordering of invitations, name cards, and senior pictures. The senior play was "Father Knows Best", directed by Mrs. Barbara Morgan. Work days and other money making projects followed until our trip was financed. Mr. Morris and Miss Cochran were our patient sponsors who worked with officers, Ted Studebaker, Dave Benadum, Kay Brinkley, Nancy Burres, and Gloria Blair.

The juniors presented a prom in our honor during the month of May. The class of 1960 received diplomas on May 10 after twelve years of toil and a wonderful senior trip. This was "the end of the beginning".

Seniors Set Tradition

The seniors set a tradition when they took the first eighth grade trip to Wyandotte, Indiana. The pictures show some of the places visited on the trip.

The class traveled on a school bus, which was loaded with three in a seat plus suitcases, lunches, and cameras.

Eliminating the crowded conditions, it proved to be quite a successful trip, and has been continued by following eighth grade classes.

Our Famous

Our Junior Play was entitled "The Little Dog Laughed". This was the story about a girl who knew just enough about psychology to get into trouble. The characters were portrayed by Elaine Poe, Roberta Carder, Fred Hollowell, Ted Studebaker, Sherri Riegel, Gene Swingley, Kay Brinkley, Dave Benadum, Chris Roberts, Gary Shonk, Emily Gibson, Barbara Black, Gloria Blair, Karen Sipe, and Nancy Burres. These students were directed by Bonnie Loughmiller and Mr. Marlot Williams.

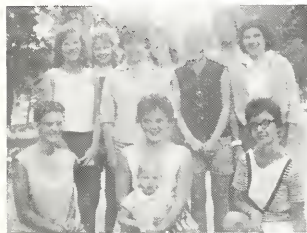

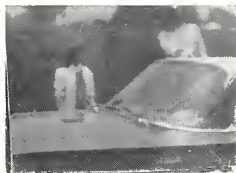

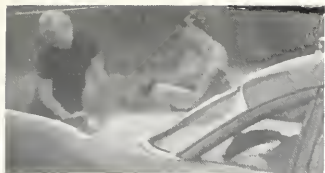

Productions

The title of our Senior Play was "Father Knows Best". This play was an adaption of the popular T. V. program. It was a story of Betty's elopement that never really happened. The characters were portrayed by Sherry Hess, Bill Robertson, Kay Brinkley, Ted Studebaker, Nancy Burres, Dave Benadum, Jim Fuller, Gene Swingley, Richard Morris, Christi Duke, Randy Presser, Karen Sipe, Emily Gibson, Sue Dunlap, Christine Roberts, Ruth Whittig, Barbara Black. The student director was Caroline Jury. Our director was Mrs. Barbara Morgan.

The accepted abilities themselves environment the teachers on their ability to contribute to establishing a good school year.

The greatest single experience for the six to seven year olds, up to now, was that eventful day, August 26, when weight of this and as a result of the struggle will end up strong, tested, courageous citizens of this community.

Let's take a look at the valiant seniors whose fortune it seems is to encounter a new challenge each day.

The seniors are aware that this last year must the annual...

...-New York trip
and, of course, graduation exercises.

One young lady said that she wanted to rest a year because of the fast pace in high school and the young man sitting with her said, "Me too," "I'll have to rest at least a year before I start to look for a job." "I'm tired," he said. "Me too," she said.

Underclassmen

Juniors Assume Much Responsibility

Realizing the responsibilities of their last two years of high school, the junior class has organized a committee for the first happy event to be under their direction. Chosen to be the committee for the junior-senior prom are from left to right: ROW 1: John Slusher, sponsor; Bill Elliott, head chairman; Don Morris, decoration chairman; Larry Wilson, refreshment chairman; Priscilla Seidner, refreshments; Dixie Main, refreshments. ROW 2: Diana Wiles, refreshments; Melanie Love, decorations; Nancy Ratican, decorations; and Mary Ward, decorations.

Sophomores Made Plans For the Future

A highlight of the sophomore year is the ordering of class rings. The class received their rings on December 10 after a long waiting period. Bob Bacon and Bonnie Barber have the honor of owning the largest and the smallest rings respectively. They are shown comparing the size of their rings during a free moment.

The hard-working officers of the Freshman class are shown during a free moment. They are from left to right: Bob Smith, president; Teresa Lewis, secretary; Mrs. Morgan, sponsor; Lois Prewett, vice-president; Lois Main, treasurer; and Allen Wiles, reporter. The initiative and leadership displayed by these officers has made their first year of high school a great success.

Freshmen Begin Long Journey Across Assembly

A highlight for the class of 1964 was the ordering of class jackets. Standing at the left of the candy machine is Ginny Osborne, proudly wearing her blue and white jacket with EATON across the front. On the right, watching Allen Wiles buy a candy bar, are Jerry Reynolds and Connie Fox, also wearing class jackets.

THANKS

Mrs. Barbara Morgan

We wish to thank Mrs. Barbara Morgan and Mr. Clifford French for all their cooperation and assistance throughout the past year. Our yearbook would not have been a success without their help.

Thank you Mrs Morgan and Mr. French for all your help and co-operation.
S Henry Ness

Thanks to both of you for your help and assistance.
Fred Hollowell

We appreciate your help and assistance to the Norseman Staff.

Robert Cander
Thanks for all of the help!
Nancy Surro

Thanks, Mrs. Morgan and
Mr. French for all your guidance and cooperation to the Norseman Staff.
Alice Hillis

I wish to extend my thanks to
Mr. French and
Mrs. Morgan who have made the 1961
Norseman a success
Ray Brinkley

If we had not had their co-operation we could not have accomplished what we have.
Gene Swingley

Thanks, Mrs. Morgan and
Mr. French, for all the help and co-operation which you have extended us. We gratefully appreciate it.
Joann Gregory
